IV. New Business

A. Monitoring Report

Anna Krueger elaborated on her Monitoring Report that included the following:

- 36 enrolled students by end of year

- 18 students graduated

- virtual learning went well, because Catalyst students were so familiar with the digital format

- Catalyst teachers discussed the fall and the upcoming community learning component

- Catalyst students will participate in Sources of Strength

- 3 students graduated early, 3 other students finished GEDO-2 program

- An FVTC campus visit occurred in February, there was a trip to Mosquito Hill, Catalyst

- students also volunteered at the Dr. Seuss on the Loose event, assisting 4 year old students

B. Virtual Learning results

Anna Krueger and Kasey Kaepernick reviewed the success of students on the virtual learning platform and how many of them made more progress than they usually do, because they were not distracted by the social interactions in the classroom.

C. Fall 2020 Plans

Anna Krueger and Kasey Kaepernick discussed the service learning program requirement that will take effect in the fall and also their continued effort to include more volunteer and apprenticeship opportunities in the program for their students.
