December is here and with it, a little bit of winter! I am excited to enter December with all of the traditions the holidays bring, and now, more snow!

Speaking of traditions, our annual Winter Concert is back and will be held at New London High School Friday, December 15th. Please note that the south-side lot of the high school will be reserved for those in need of a close parking location. There are also multiple handicap spots available in this lot. Guests parking here should enter through Door#9. Please note, doors will open at 1:00pm, 30 minutes prior to the concert in accordance with our safety protocols.

Our next iReady assessment window begins the week of January 8 and we are excited to see the results. Assessment results will go home in the Quarter 2 report card envelopes to provide you with one more data point in your child(ren)'s learning journey.

Winter wishes were sent home in Thursday Folders this past Thursday. This is a wonderful opportunity to surprise your student at school with a fun Holiday message!

Throughout the month, students will be making a special something for a special someone(s). These will go home prior to break, but no peeking until Christmas! A huge thanks to our PTO for supporting this annual activity!

I hope you have a chance to enjoy this busy season. On behalf of the Readfield Staff we wish you an amazing Holiday Season!

~Kristin Grable

Thankful for Books and Our Trail!

Just before Thanksgiving, students participated in a Thanksgiving read aloud, created an edible turkey and “trotted” around our Caledonia Trail! Prior to the read aloud, students signed up for the book they wanted to hear and then the mystery readers were revealed in the gym. It is always fun to bring students from all the grade levels together to enjoy each others company! We then wrapped up the day with a Turkey Trot! Thank you to all the families that were able to join us!
