

Just Me and My Projector
New London Academy
January-February 2009
Instructor: Michele Green

Interactive Websites

Lists of Websites

- Birmingham Grid for Learning
<http://www.bgfl.org/bgfl/15.cfm?s=15&p=550>
- Utah Education Network <http://www.uen.org/k12student/>
 - K-2, 3-6, and 7-12 interactives menu on right of screen.
- Sachem (Elementary)
<http://www.sachem.edu/dept/sd/smartboard/Elementary%20Resources.htm>
- Greendale Elementary School
<http://www.wcs.k12.va.us/users/honaker/K-2.html>
 - Links to commercial sites like Sesame Street, PBS, Disney, etc.
- JulieThompson.com <http://www.julithompson.com/SMART.html>
 - Collection of K-3 websites

Individual Websites

- BBC <http://www.bbc.co.uk/schools/>
 - Tons of short video clips and small interactive games, also worksheets that follow along with the activities
- Learning Planet <http://www.learningplanet.com/>
 - Some activities are free, most are paid
- Starfall <http://www.starfall.com/>
 - Mostly K-2, lots of literacy activities!
- ABCya! <http://www.abcya.com/>
 - Elementary, broken down by grade level
- Interactive <http://www.shodor.org/interactivate/>
 - Higher level math activities
- Johnnie's Math Page <http://jmathpage.com/index.html>
 - Math for all levels
- FossWeb <http://www.fossweb.com/>
 - K-8 Science activities

- PBS Wayback <http://pbskids.org/wayback/>
 - US History for middle and high
- NCES Kids' Zone <http://nces.ed.gov/nceskids/>
 - Make a graph, Dare to Compare, probability
- ThinkPort <http://www.thinkport.org/Classroom/trips.tp>
 - Virtual field trips. The rest of the site has a ton of stuff too!
- Hands On Crafts <http://www.handsoncrafts.org/001.htm>
 - Students can throw clay or weave a shirt.
- Cut the Knot <http://www.cut-the-knot.org/Curriculum/index.shtml>
 - Math activities – mostly middle and high
- Out on a Limb: a guide to getting along
<http://urbanext.illinois.edu/conflict/index.html>
 - Click on the Just for Kids button for lots of other fun activities too!
- Scholastic www.scholastic.com
 - Explore all the areas – it's endless! Teachers, Students, Parents, Kids – they all have different activities!
- Funschool <http://funschool.kaboose.com/>
 - Like Funbrain but better.
- Houghton Mifflin Harcourt Education Place
<http://www.eduplace.com/kids/index.jsp>
 - Goes along with their textbook series but there are a lot of great interactives here.
- Activities for ESL Students <http://a4esl.org/>
 - Ignore this website's title! Lots of good grammar and vocabulary quizzes here!
- Myths and Legends <http://myths.e2bn.org/>
 - Students can listen to stories and create their own