

Desert Biome

By Keaton

Biome Description

- All deserts get very little rain.
- Deserts are in North America, South America, Africa and Asia

Land and Weather

- Some deserts are covered in sand and some have rocky cliffs and have rocks with strange shapes.
- Rainfall for the year is 4.7 inches.
- Most of the deserts are hot, but some are cold.

Animals

- Some animals are bats, owls, jackrabbits, wolves and cobra snakes.
- Other small living things are spiders, birds and mice.

Plants

- There are Cactus and Shrubs in the Desert

