Positions:

Pole Vault Coach – 2019 Track Season

The School District of New London is seeking a qualified candidate to fill the position of a pole vault coach for the 2019 track season. Applicants should have experience competing or coaching the event as well as a passion for broadening their knowledge of the sport and working with student athletes.

Responsibilities include:

- Analysis of proper form and technique to assist the student athletes with pole vault.
- Research and explore new and relevant techniques and training methodology to better understand the event.
- Partner with Head Coach and Assistant Coaches to ensure camaraderie and team approach techniques.
- Attend coaching meetings and other meetings, as necessary.
- Availability includes after school practice time (3:30pm-5:30pm Monday through Friday) beginning on March 4, 2019 including select evenings and Saturdays for competition.

The successful candidate must serve as an effective role model in supporting and advancing the School District of New London's mission and values.

To apply, please contact Phil Sloma, Activities Director, at psloma@newlondon.k12.wi.us
