

Social Studies Flowchart

This flowchart represents typical Social Studies course sequencing for students at New London High School. It is expected that students will proceed through U.S. History / AP U.S History, American Government/ AP U.S. Government and Politics following Global Studies freshman year. Students also have the opportunity to take electives, including those that could result in college credit, after completion of Global Studies.

