

EQUAL EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES/COMPLAINT PROCEDURES

- A. The School District of New London is committed and dedicated to the task of providing the best education possible for every student in the District for as long as the student can benefit from attendance, and the student's conduct is compatible with the welfare of the entire student body.
- B. The right of the student to be admitted to school and to participate fully in curricular, co-curricular, student services, recreational or other programs or activities will not be abridged or impaired because of a student's sex, race, religion, color, national origin, ancestry, creed, pregnancy, marital or parental status, sexual orientation, physical, mental, emotional, or learning disability/handicap.
- C. Children of homeless individuals and unaccompanied homeless youth (youth not in the physical custody of a parent/guardian) residing in the District will have equal access to the same free, appropriate public education, including comparable services, as provided to other children and youth who reside in the District. Homeless children and youth will not be required to attend a separate school or program for homeless children and will not be stigmatized by school personnel.
- D. The District will provide appropriate educational services and/or programs for students who have been identified as having a handicap or disability, regardless of the nature or severity of the handicap or disability.
- E. The District will also provide for the reasonable accommodation of a student's sincerely held religious beliefs with regard to examinations and other academic requirements. Requests for accommodations will be made in writing and approved by the building principal. Accommodations may include, but not necessarily be limited to, exclusion from participation in an activity, alternative assignments, released time from school to participate in religious activities, and opportunities to make up work missed due to religious observances. Any accommodations granted under this policy will be provided to students without prejudicial effect.
- F. Complaints regarding the interpretation or application of this policy will be referred to the District Administrator and processed in accordance with established procedures.
- G. Any complaint regarding the interpretation or application of the district's student nondiscrimination policy will be processed in accordance with the following complaint procedures.
